

HEATHER MACSKILL

author of

ENOUGH

A Cancer Survivor's Journey From Protesting to Proclaiming

AUTHOR BIO

Heather finds writing to be a therapeutic way to process life and all its challenges. She uses the power of story to connect with people. Her focus in writing is on encouraging people in all circumstances to trust in Jesus. Heather finds purpose in life through loving God and people. In this debut solo work, she has created a powerful, relatable memoir which brings hope and encouragement for all circumstances. Heather was previously published in a compilation of devotions, "Radical Abundance".

Heather has spent her life closely entwined with people and their stories. As a wife, mom, educator and author, Heather spends her days with others. Born and raised in southern Ontario, she now resides in the Canadian capital of Ottawa. Heather loves the outdoors, whether it's hiking, swimming or sitting around a fire.

ENOUGH

A Cancer Survivor's Journey From Protesting to Proclaiming

In "Enough: A Cancer Survivor's Journey from Protesting to Proclaiming", Heather invites the readers into her deeply personal odyssey. She navigates the tumultuous waters of illness and doubt with trust in Jesus Christ. From the depths of despair to the heights of triumph, Heather's journey is a testament to the power of faith and the indomitable spirit of the human soul.

With raw honesty and profound insight, Heather shares her experiences of battling cancer, confronting fear, and ultimately discovering the true meaning of 'enough' in the arms of her Savior. Through her compelling narrative, she offers hope to those facing their own trials and challenges, showing them that even in the darkest moments, God's love shines brightest.

"Enough" is not just a memoir; it's a roadmap to finding peace and purpose in life's storms.

CONNECT

Q&A

WEBSITE

YOUTUBE

FACEBOOK

INSTAGRAM

LINKED IN

Read an excerpt from ENOUGH